

DragonSlayer Painting Competition

The DragonSlayer Painting Competition includes five regular categories.

They are:

- Single Miniature
- Vehicle/Beasts of War
- Squad
- Bust
- Open (diorama, duel, etc)

1)All DragonFall badge holders, are allowed to enter ONE submission into each of the 5 categories for FREE. Additional submissions into the category are possible but advised against. Idea here is to get a lot of participation of our attendees, not to have one category flooded with entries from one artist. As this is a free perk for our Badge holders and convention goers, we hope you understand.

2)Each Category will have a Single Winner

3)The top 3 scoring entries overall, across all categories, shall receive prizes. These prizes vary from gift certificates from our Vendors to prize support that we have received from Sponsors.

4)The overall highest score will be the winner of the DragonSlayer Painting Competition. In addition to the above, will receive the DragonSlayer Axe as a Grand Prize.

5)Each Entrant is only available for one top 3 position, i.e. it is not possible to win any combination of the first, second and third prizes, the next runner-up winner will be awarded instead.

6)In the event of any dispute, the sum liability of DragonFall, its sponsors and vendors, to any entrant shall be whatever the entrant paid to DragonFall for the painting competition. I.E. null, as this event is FREE.

7)All entrees must be submitted in person, by the entrant, before 1PM on Saturday October 22nd. Entry registration will be at the glass case within the Vendor Hall.

8)A DragonFall WEEKEND BADGE is required to submit entries. Please note the word WEEKEND, day badges are not eligible. The thought process is simple for this requirement, you must submit your entree on Saturday and winners are announced on Sunday.

9)Entrants are responsible for the transpiration of entries to and from the competition. No storage space for transportation materials will be provided. Entrants must pick up entries on Sunday, Oct. 23rd by 5PM or risk the entry getting packed up and returned at next year's DragonFall.

10)Only one person may be listed and credited as the entrant on any of the joint effort entries. While painters may work on original sculpts of conversions by other artists, and more than one artist may contribute to an entry if desired, there will be no co-credit given or division or duplication of prizes.

11)Entrants must remain available for judging, queries, and prize awards during the competition.

12)Entrants agree to provide all entries at their own risk to DragonFall, for the duration of the competition for the purposes of display, photography, and judging.

13)DragonFall has the rights to all images of the entrees at our events, and your entry may be used in promotional materials for our Charity Convention in the future.

14)DragonFall accepts no responsibility for damage to or loss or entries during the competition.

15)Tournament Players- as this is a free perk included in your weekend, it is our hope that you participate. Your entree could come from the army that you are playing. If that is the case, please bring a suitable proxy for your models for the time of judging. Judging could take the entire weekend. The proxy DOES have to meet all the painting requirements to attend and play in your event. IE- don't be that person who has a primed or bare metal miniature during your games at DragonFall.

16)All rules above are subject to change without notice.
